IMPORTANT NOTICE

A written cancellation will be accepted up to five (5) working days prior to the conference, after which a compulsory cancellation fee of 35% will apply to all cancellations.

If the delegate does not attend the conference and did not submit a written cancellation, he/she will still be liable for the total amount. This applies to cases where the completed registration form has already been received and an invoice for payment already issued.

NO payments will be accepted on the day of the conference. Only payments made in full in advance, which have been cleared, will count as an official conference registration. If the delegate's name is not on the list on the conference days, no entry to the conference venue will be permitted.

I have read and fully understand this clause.
